

COMMUNICATION STRATEGIES AND SUPPORTS FOR PEOPLE ON THE AUTISM SPECTRUM

Presented by Jennifer White, Executive Director Able Opportunities, Inc.

We are pleased to offer this dynamic two-day seminar on successful communication strategies for persons on the autism spectrum. During the workshop, participants will learn:

- How autism may affect the acquisition and organization of language
- Clear and accessible models of social and professional expectations
- Proven high & low tech strategies in workplace, home and community environments
- The Work Autonomy APP, a person-centered accommodation tool

There is no cost to attend but registration is required.

Training Capacity: 30 Individuals

WHEN: Monday, July 13, 2015 9:00-4:00 PM

LOCATION: Moses Lake fire station-Multipurpose room
701 E. 3rd Avenue
Moses Lake, WA

WHEN: Tuesday, July 14, 2015 9:00-4:00 PM

LOCATION: Moses Lake Fire station-Multipurpose room
701 E. 3rd Avenue
Moses Lake, WA

PRESENTER: Jennifer L. White; Ms. White is a nationally renowned expert in communication supports for persons with autism and other developmental disabilities.

Ms. White works with a broad range of people, specializing in communication, education and vocational goals & programs for children and adults. She has worked in the field of rehabilitation for over 20 years, after a career as a special education teacher specializing in programs for nonverbal students with autism and sensory loss.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: supported employment specialists, supported living providers, advocates and self-advocates, teachers, DDA and DVR case managers, AFH, CH, AL & family members.

REGISTRATION: Contact Trina Tenny @ tennytr@dshs.wa.gov or 509-751-4638